

Table of Contents

Alexander BALTHASAR/Johannes W. PICHLER

Preface 1

Alexander BALTHASAR

Message de bienvenue 3

Johannes W. PICHLER

Participatory governance – introductory remarks 5

Josef PÜHRINGER

Rolle der Regionen 9

Karen JOHNSTON

Multi-Level Governance: From Local Communities to a True European Community – A Public Administration Perspective 13

Franz MATSCHER

Message de bienvenue 17

Thomas MARKERT

Multilevel Governance: a Way to Increase Democratic Legitimacy of the Judiciary 19

Josef AZIZI

Multilevel Governance: a Way to increase Democratic Legitimacy of the Judiciary? 25

Klemens H. FISCHER

Governance in a Multi-level European Union – On the smart Application of Tools 51

Luc van den BRANDE/Johannes W. PICHLER

The Multilevel Governance Charter – A move towards an aligned and partnership-based democracy 65

Alexander BALTHASAR

Multi-Level Governance: a new paradigm for the European Union? 75

Manuel LEZERTUA RODRIGUEZ

The Future Role of the Regions and the Municipalities in Europe 91

Hendrik HANSEN

Freedom and citizens' participation in the EU – Multi-Level-Governance in the light of Tocqueville's analysis of municipal democracy 97

Maria PONOMAREVA

The Centralized State and Provincial Independence in Modern Russia: to reconcile the irreconcilable? 105

Melanie SULLY

Multi-Level Governance in the UK: the search for a master plan 115

Patricia JONASON

Multidimensional governance illustrated by participatory environmental governance - The Baltic Sea Region example 123

François PRIET

Chances et défis de la décentralisation 139

Hiroko KUDO

Guaranteeing Diversity while Promoting Integration: Territorial, Cultural and Institutional Identities under Insularity and Multi-level Governance 151

Annexes

Conference Programme and Index of Participants 173

Alexandra AVRAM/Rainhard FUCHS/Katja SCHAGER

Conference Report 181

Alexandra AVRAM

Compte Rendu de la Conférence 189