

Contents

Acknowledgements VII

Introduction 1

- 1 Model Situations When Human Rights are Relevant for Investor – State Arbitration 15
 - 1 Identification of Model Situations 15
 - 2 First Model Situation – Host States Invoking Human Rights in the Absence of Violations Having been Committed by Investors 23
 - i Invocations of the General Notion of Human Rights 23
 - ii Invocations of Specific Human Rights 34
 - iii Human Rights Referred to by Arbitral Tribunals 52
 - 3 Second Model Situation – Host States Invoking Human Rights Where Violations Have been Committed by Investors 60
 - 4 Third Model Situation – Investors Invoking Human Rights 73
 - 5 Interrelations between the Model Situations 96
- 2 Human Rights Context of Jurisdiction and Admissibility in Investor – State Arbitration 100
 - 1 Scope of Jurisdiction of Tribunals in Investor – State Arbitration and Human Rights 100
 - i General Remarks on the Grounds of Jurisdiction of Arbitral Tribunals 100
 - ii Characteristics of the Consent to Arbitrate Given in Investment Treaties 103
 - iii Types of Jurisdictional Limits and Their Possible Consequences 107
 - iv Types of Jurisdiction Clauses Typically Present in Investment Treaties 109
 - v Scope of Arbitral Tribunals' Jurisdiction in Investor – State Arbitration and Human Rights Invoked by Investors 113
 - vi Scope of Arbitral Tribunals' Jurisdiction in Investor – State Arbitration and Human Rights Invoked by Host States 122
 - 2 Admissibility of Claims in the Light of Possible Human Rights Violations Committed by Investors and the Requirement to Undertake Investments in Accordance with Local Law 127
 - i Distinction between Jurisdiction and Admissibility in International Investment Law 127

ii	"In Accordance with Local Laws" Requirement	134
iii	Non-explicit "in Accordance with Local Laws" Requirement	140
iv	Admissibility of and Jurisdiction Over Claims Concerning Investments Made Contrary to Host States' Laws Concerning Human Rights	143
3	The Impact of Human Rights on the Merits of Investor – State Arbitration	149
1	Influence of Human Rights on the Interpretation of the Provisions of Investment Treaties	149
i	General Rules of Treaty Interpretation	149
ii	Fair and Equitable Treatment	160
iii	Expropriation	182
2	Possibility of Invoking Investors' Human Rights in the Course of Arbitral Proceedings	207
4	Compensation and Costs in Investor – State Arbitration and the Issue of Human Rights	218
1	Impact of Human Rights on the Level of Compensation Awarded in Investor – State Arbitration	218
i	General Remarks	218
ii	Principles Governing Compensation in Investor – State Arbitration	222
iii	Concept of Contributory Negligence	231
iv	Contributory Negligence and Human Rights Violations Committed by Investors	239
v	Reduction of Compensation and Remaining Human Rights Concerns	246
vi	Concept of Moral Damages	250
vii	Moral Damages and Violations of Investors' Human Rights	264
2	Human Rights Considerations as a Justification to Shift Costs of the Proceedings	272
i	General Remarks	272
ii	Rules Concerning the Burden of Costs	274
iii	Decision on Costs and the Issue of Human Rights	280
	Conclusions	285
	Bibliography	291
	Index	320