

Contents

FOREWORD .....	3
GLOSSARY .....	7
FIGURES .....	9
KEY FINDINGS AND FRA OPINIONS .....	11
INTRODUCTION: ASSESSING CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS AS DOING JUSTICE TO VICTIMS OF VIOLENT CRIME	17
1 RECOGNITION: THE ROLE OF VICTIMS OF VIOLENT CRIME IN THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM .....	21
1.1 How victims of violence experience their role in criminal proceedings .....	21
1.2 How practitioners view the role of victims of violent crime in the criminal justice system .....	28
1.3 A victim's conflicting roles as a witness and a party .....	34
1.4 Practitioners' views on the need for reform .....	37
Conclusion .....	43
2 EMPOWERING VICTIMS BY PROVIDING SUPPORT, LEGAL ADVICE AND INFORMATION .....	47
2.1 Support services .....	48
2.2 Victims receiving information .....	54
2.3 Legal advice and representation .....	66
Conclusion .....	67
3 ACCESSIBILITY OF PROCEEDINGS .....	69
3.1 Victims reporting to the police .....	69
3.2 Victims asserting their participation rights .....	73
3.3 Victims in the court trial .....	74
3.4 Effective remedies available to victims .....	77
Conclusion .....	80
4 RECEPTIVITY OF CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS .....	81
4.1 Victims' views on the receptivity of police investigations .....	81
4.2 Victims' views on the receptivity of court proceedings .....	85
4.3 Practitioners' views on how seriously practitioners take victims' concerns .....	86
Conclusion .....	87

5 VICTIMS' RIGHT TO PROTECTION AGAINST SECONDARY VICTIMISATION AND RETALIATION .....	89
5.1 The marginalisation of the victim as large-scale secondary victimisation: criminal justice adding to the wrong done by the offender .....	89
5.2 Secondary victimisation caused by unprotected contact with the offender .....	91
5.3 Victims' protection against retaliation .....	96
Conclusion .....	96
CONCLUSIONS: CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEMS IN TRANSITION .....	97
REFERENCES .....	99

