

Contents

Acknowledgements	9
Preface by Maud de Boer-Buquicchio, Deputy Secretary General of the Council of Europe	11
Celebrating children's rights: a Council of Europe wish	11
Introduction	13
Chapter 1 – The fundamental legal principles of interpretation found in European constitutional and international case law	15
Section 1 – The inter-relationship between the European Convention on Human Rights and the regional and global treaties on children's rights	15
Limitations upon convergence – The approach of the European Court of Human Rights to the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989	18
The approach of the European Court of Human Rights to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights 1966	23

The approach of the European Court of Human Rights to the revised European Social Charter 1996	25
The European Convention on the Exercise of Children's Rights 1996	26
The European Union and children's rights	27
Supportive convergence – The approach of the European Court of Human Rights to private international law treaties concerning children's rights	28
Section 2 – The fundamental principles underpinning child rights cases in Europe	30
Pushing and pulling in different directions – The best interests of the child and the margin of appreciation of states	30
The evolving capacities of the child	37
The principle of non-discrimination	39
Chapter 2 – The definition of childhood in Europe	51
Section 1 – Convergent and divergent approaches to the beginning of childhood	51
Section 2 – Minimum ages and the end of childhood	57
Chapter 3 – Child participation and autonomy	63
Section 1 – The right to respect for private life	63
Identity and respect for the child's private life	64
Physical integrity and respect for the child's private life	74
Section 2 – The right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion	77
The right of a child to choose a religion	77
Education in conformity with religious and other beliefs	80

Section 3 – The right to freedom of expression	81
Section 4 – The right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association	86
Children and the right to freedom of peaceful assembly	86
Children and the right to freedom of association	88
Section 5 – The right to freedom of movement	89
Chapter 4 – Child protection	93
Section 1 – The right to liberty and security	93
Children detained on remand	94
Detention for the purposes of educational supervision	95
Child deprivation of liberty – Post conviction	100
Section 2 – The right to a fair trial	104
The minimum age of criminal responsibility	106
The right of a child to a fair trial in criminal proceedings	107
Presumption of innocence	112
Diversions	113
The right of a child to a fair trial in civil proceedings ...	113
Section 3 – The right to respect for family life	117
The definition and ambit of family life	118
The child, immigration, refugee status and family life	123
Adoption, fostering and family life	126
Children and issues of access and custody	130
Placement of children in care	134

Chapter 5 – Child provision rights	145
Section 1 – The right to an effective remedy	145
Section 2 – The right to education	151
The child, education and resources	151
The quality of education	156
Education in conformity with religious and philosophical convictions	158
Educational dress	164
Chapter 6 – Prevention rights and children	167
Section 1 – The prohibition on torture, inhuman and degrading treatment and punishment	167
Judicial physical punishment and children	169
The relationship between Articles 3, 8 and 13	171
State responsibility for treatment and punishment in the private sphere	173
Educational physical punishment and children	174
Converging – The trend within the Council of Europe towards prohibiting all forms of child physical punishment	176
Child deprivation of liberty and the prohibition of torture, inhuman and degrading treatment and punishment	180
Child welfare and Article 3	183
Section 2 – The prohibition on slavery and forced labour	186
Contemporary child servitude	187
Children and light work	193
Child military service	195
Chapter 7 – Convergence and divergence: an overview	197