TABLE OF CONTENTS

Executive summary 9

1. Introduction 13
1.1. Background and aims of the report 14
1.2. Methodology 15
1.2.1. Literature review 15
1.2.2. Focal Point survey 15
1.3. Definitions for violence and harassment at work 16
1.3.1. Work-related violence referring to both physical and psychological violence 16
1.3.2. Internal and external workplace violence 17
1.3.3. Other definitions for physical violence 19
1.3.4. Definitions for harassment, bullying and mobbing 20
1.3.5. Sexual harassment 23
1.4. Summary and discussion 25

2. Awareness of problems of work-related violence 27
2.1. National definitions 28
2.2. Legal status of work-related violence in European countries 28
2.3. Usability of legislation 34
2.4. Acknowledgement of the problem 37
2.5. Summary and discussion 40

3. Prevalence of work-related violence 43
3.1. Availability of statistical information 45
3.2. Situation in the EU Member States 46
3.2.1. European Working Conditions Survey (EWCS) 46
3.2.2. Examples at national levels 51
3.3. Sectors and occupations at risk of work-related violence 55
3.4. Summary and discussion 59

4. Risks and antecedents of work-related violence 61
4.1. Risks and antecedents for third-party violence 62
4.1.1. Work environment factors behind third-party violence 62
4.1.2. Individual characteristics as risk factors 64
4.2. Risks and antecedents of harassment at work 65
4.2.1. Environmental and organisational antecedents of bullying at work 65
4.2.2 Individual and personality characteristics as antecedents of bullying at work 68
4.3. Risks and antecedents of sexual harassment 71
4.4. Summary and discussion 72

5. Consequences of work-related violence 75
5.1. Consequences of third-party violence 76
5.1.1. Consequences to the subjects of violence 76
5.1.2. Consequences to organisations 77
5.1.3. Consequences to society 78
5.2. Consequences of harassment at work 78
5.2.1. Consequences to the subjects of harassment 78

5.2.2. Consequences to organisations 81
5.2.3. Consequences to society 82
5.3. Summary and discussion 84

6. Initiatives and interventions to prevent and manage work-related violence 87
6.1. Initiatives to address work-related violence at European level 88
6.2. European and international approaches 89
6.2.1. European Framework for Psychosocial Risk Management (PRIMA-EF) 89
6.2.2. Strategies to tackle violence by the ILO 93
6.2.3. Raising awareness of psychological harassment at work by WHO 95
6.3. National policies 97
6.4. National initiatives 99
6.5. Summary and discussion 104

7. Conclusions and the way forward 109
7.1. Conclusions 110
7.2. The way forward 112

References 117

Appendix I: Focal Point survey questionnaire 131

Appendix II: National legislation on work-related violence 147